Item 4

Abenita became perplexed as she had been praying to her gods as a traditionalist since childhood in hopes of seeing her god physically just as she believed in Abraham who at one time worshiped the stars and the moon. But two years ago, she met Musa and James who belonged to the Christian and Muslim faith of religion which were diverse from what she was believing in but also worshiped the same God as her. The three broke into an argument trying to understand who God is and his manifestation in the different religion. As a student of senior one, you have been chosen to educate the three on this matter.

Task

Explain to Abenita and her friends on how God is manifested as a supreme being in Islam, Christianity and African Traditional religion using your understanding of various religions.

Wishing you Good luck
