

HOLIDAY PACKAGE FORM ONE HISTORY

KUPATA MAJIBU YAKE TUCHEKI

WHATSAPP 0624 254 757

1. Explain why in the history of mankind, it is necessary to study the evolution of man?
2. Every sources of historical information has its own challenges to use. explain limitation of using Archaeology to obtain historical information.
3. African continent had its own history and its development, not as colonialist termed as Dark Continent. In six arguments, show the basis for consolidation and development of centralized states.
4. Explain six limitations of using oral tradition as sources of historical information.
5. One day history teacher provided quiz in class to assess the understanding of students on one among of the stages of evolution of man were by analyzing the physical feature and the way of life in which man lived in the stage. Assume that you were among of that student provide three (3) point on physical feature and two (2) on way of life.
6. Environmental factors and economic activities influenced the evolution of political organization in pre- colonial Africa Societies. Justify this statement with five points.
7. Mrs. Bamushu believe agriculture had no contributions in changing man 's life in pre – colonial Africa. Correct her in five points.
8. Briefly explain any five contribution of Trans Saharan trade to the development of the State in West Africa.
9. Describe five weakness of the oral tradition in obtaining historical information.
10. Discuss six challenges that occurred during new Stone Age.
11. Why the middle Stone Age became very famous stage than Old and Late stone Age?
12. How the development of agriculture was the one among of the factors for rise of Buganga Kingdom?
13. Why did the oral tradition become important source of history?
14. The discovering of iron technology brought so many changes in man's life, identify five changes that occurred.
15. How would you defend the fact that “Museums are great significance in our Society”

16. What is the role played by elders in imparting Historical information to young Generation.
17. How do you relate iron technology and the discovery of fire in the History of Man's technological development.
18. Show how the contents of the theory of evolution contradicts with the theory of creation of man
19. Pre-colonial African societies involved in the system of exchange at local and regional Level." With vivid examples from the long distance trade in east and West Africa. Show factors contributed to the development of trade in pre- Colonial Africa.
20. Jolin is a form one student at U.B.N Secondary school who dislike to study history compared to other subjects. Show to Jolin by listing down six (6) importance of studying history.
21. Show how economic activities in pre colonial Africa were heterogeneous.
22. By using six points shows the setback of written record as the source of historical information.
23. As expert in history how the people of pre- colonial benefited with the presence of stone tools.
24. Show the relationship between the discovery of minerals and the growth of imperialism in South Africa.
25. Explain how discovery of iron led to changes in lives of east Africa in the 16th century and 17th century.
26. In which ways Iron Age people different for the Stone Age people?
27. Name three different system of political organization adopted by different east Africa ethnic tribes in the 18th century. Briefly name their economic activities.
28. In pre- colonial trade was play a big role on the development of cities and states. Briefly explain.
29. Explain six pre-requisites for state formation in the pre-colonial Africa

30. In pre colonial Makua and Yao were practiced crop cultivation. As a historian, give five reasons how their activities changed the lives of human beings in Africa? (five points)