SECTION A

Item 1

Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

MY LIFE

My name is Sarah, a very beautiful name got from the Bible! Abraham's wife, Sarah is best remembered for her modesty, faithfulness, humility and submission to her husband, despite her bareness, until Isaac was born to her when she was 99 years old. I love this name Sarah!

At 13, there is no physical help that I do not give my mother. Ever since my father passed a way, I tried to work just as hard as I see her do to sustain our family. Despite her resilience, its extremely difficult for my mother to make her ends meet.

However,she refuse to break down or give up. Her guiding principle is hard work and sacrifice. She believes that humanity can overcome all obstacles in life and also help other people to persevere. My young sister and I sell vegetables and a few other items in the market every after school.

On my first day in class, we were asked to talk about what we want to become in future. It is very interesting to know one another views. I want to become a teacher for two simple reasons; all my teachers treat and teach me well. I am sure that I will excel in future.

I intend to help my family to become successful and stable. My dream is to teach as many children as possible to be humble,respectful,responsible and hardworking as they strive to achieve their goals in life. That will be my humble contribution to my society.

When some students tease me about my ambitions,they are reprimanded for such behaviour because teaching is a noble profession and besides, no job should be despised. Without attending school games and sports and even leadership. I am a member of the basketball team in which I feature as a captain and top scorer. This boosts my public image and confidence. I just love it!

Read the dialogue and answer questions that follow.

A DIALOGUE.

Kimuli : Good morning, Kezia.

Kezia : Good morning ,Kimuli.

Kimuli : What are you reading on that computer?

Kezia : Am reading an article about the dangers of using the internet too much.

Kimuli : What does it say?

Kezia : It says that many children can not think on their own today because they believe they will get everything from the internet.

Kimuli : That is very true,Kezia. Using the internet all the time leads to laziness because people may become totally dependent on it.

Kezia : That means that although the internet is good, we should not use it all the time.

Kimuli : Yes, Kezia.

Kezia : I will take your advice very seriously.

SECTION B

Item 3

Cathy was admitted at Kiyala High School for her secondary education. Since her home was very far from school, she decided to move to her uncles home which was near the school. Cathy actually misses her friend Nacy but she also enjoys her stay in her uncles home. She is very excited about her new school and home, because she has made new friends and her cousins are amazing.

Task.

Assuming you are Cathy, write to Nacy about your new school and your uncles home.

BEST WISHES.
